

CLASS SEMINAR REPORT

Class Seminar on "Role of Philosophers in the French Revolution"

Date: 31 January 2025

Venue: Bankmore Campus

A class seminar on the topic "Role of Philosophers in the French Revolution" was organized by the Department of History. The seminar aimed to explore the significant contributions of philosophers to the French Revolution and its far-reaching impact on modern history.

The event commenced with an introduction to the topic, delivered by Prof. Dr. Ranjana Das, who provided a comprehensive overview of the subject. Several students from the Department of History then presented their papers on various aspects of the topic, including the influence of Enlightenment thinkers, the role of Rousseau and Voltaire, and the impact of philosophical ideas on the Revolution's ideology.

The seminar was attended by 50 students and faculty members of the Department, who actively participated in the discussions and engaged with the presenters. The event provided a valuable platform for students to showcase their research skills and engage with their peers on a significant historical topic.

Overall, the seminar was a resounding success, and the Department of History plans to organize more such events in the future to promote academic excellence and intellectual curiosity among students.
